Elliott Insurance Management hires Michelle Tucker as customer service representative

HUTCHINSON, Kan.—Michelle Tucker has been hired by Elliott Insurance Management, an independent insurance agency in Hutchinson, as a customer service representative.

In her new role, Tucker will quote commercial lines policies and serve the greater needs of Elliott Insurance Management customers. Tucker graduated from Cheney High School and studied agriculture at Kansas State University.

She has experience in commercial, farm, personal lines, life and health insurance, and is in the process of completing her Agribusiness and Farm Insurance Specialist (AFIS) designation. Most recently, she was employed by independent insurance agencies in Cheney and Kingman, Kan.

In Colorado, she was the executive director for the West Yuma County Chamber of Commerce.

“Michelle has a wide range of insurance experience and education that we believe will benefit our customers and our agency,” says Lee Gleason, Elliott Insurance Management’s vice president and general manager. “We are very pleased that she has decided to join us.”

Elliott Insurance Management is a full-service independent insurance agency that has served the needs of individuals and businesses in the Hutchinson and Reno County, Kan., area since 1967. Elliott Insurance is a Trusted Choice® member of the Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of America. It was purchased in 2005 by KFSA, one of the largest insurance agencies in Kansas, to add to the insurance options it provides to its customers.
